D1/D3 & 2010/11 Season Issues:

- Brad announced that CJSJL agreed to administer the D1/D3 program, and had scheduled a Press Release to formalize the decision. Cost, etc outlined in Release, expected additional cost will be insurance
- Field issues not clear at this point-use still at the behest of CUSD, CJSI has $16k allocated for field cost, “Light Fund” at Clovis North suspended at this time
- FC Clovis D3 policy will remain as outlined in May 2010 meeting

COSC:

- COSC no longer affiliated with CJSJL
- Looking to affiliate with another league to gain formal recognition, as State Association only recognizes “Leagues”
- South Valley and Porterville leagues have indicated that they will not allow COSC to participate in their League
- Brad and Doug stated that COSC did not offer a counter to issues ($55 player fee) after they asked to withdraw from CJSJL.
- CJSJL Board voted 25-1 to allow COSC to withdraw
- Doug stated some concern regarding CJSJL and that all protocols are followed and that CJSJL remaining proper standing
